

Sample Event Introduction

Your event introduction is a time for you to introduce the film, thank the audience for attending, and mention anything you'd like the audience to keep in the back of their minds while watching Ocean Driven. Here's an introduction template:

Thank you very much for coming to this special screening of Ocean Driven, presented by [Your Name/Organization Here]. This event truly couldn't have happened without you!

[Other Topics to Mention: The Film's Synopsis, Contributions on Your Event Page (if any), Background on Yourself or Your Organization, Ways to Help, Your Experience Hosting a Tugg Screening]

Ocean Driven reaches beyond the well-known aspects of surf legends, inspiring viewers to follow their dreams, regardless of obstacles. Check out Ocean Driven on Facebook and Twitter to learn more.

[Optional if this event was a fundraiser:]

Thanks to everyone here who made a donation to [Your Organization Here] when purchasing your tickets. Those funds will be distributed to [Indicate Cause Here]. There's still an opportunity to donate after you watch the film! Please visit the Ocean Driven page on Tugg.com—where you purchased your tickets—to make an additional contribution (<https://www.tugg.com/titles/ocean-driven>).

If you enjoy the film tonight, please tell your friends and family about it, and encourage others to host screenings through Tugg. This is a small film with a huge heart, and it's going to need our help to reach the world! For more information on how to host screenings, please visit www.oceandrivenfilm.com.

Thanks again for your support! Now sit back, relax, and enjoy Ocean Driven!
